

WEDDINGS IN AND OUT OF TOWN--ENGAGEMENTS--NOTES

Photo Copyright by Marcerau.
Mrs. Fairman R. Dick.

Continued from First Page.

day, October 21, at noon, in the Latting Chapel, Locust Valley, L. I. As the accommodations in the chapel are small only relatives and a few intimate friends have been asked to witness the ceremony. There will be a reception and wedding breakfast at Birchwood, the country place of Mr. and Mrs. Burchard. A special train will leave the Pennsylvania Station at 11 A. M. for guests from New York for the breakfast.

Miss Hostetter will have Miss Margaret A. Kennedy as her maid of honor. The bridesmaids will be the Misses Caramai Carroll, Helen Hyde, Helen Hoffstad and Virginia McKee of Pittsburg.

Mr. Stewart has not yet chosen his best man or ushers.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Eugenie Bissell, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Bissell, to Lawrence Millet, son of the late Frank D. Millet of Russell House, Broadway, Worcester, England. Miss Bissell has been active in society since she was introduced two years ago. Mr. Millet, who lives in New York, was graduated from Harvard in 1901. His father, who was a noted painter, was among those lost on the Titanic. No date has been mentioned for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hennen Caruthers, formerly of New York and now of New Orleans, announced recently the engagement of their daughter, Miss Frances Isabel Caruthers, to Assistant Paymaster Frederick C. Bowerford, U. S. N. Miss Caruthers has been visiting friends in this city and Mount Vernon, N. Y. She is a niece of Mrs. John A. Morris of this city and New Orleans, and a cousin of Mrs. Edson Bradley of Washington.

Mr. Bowerford, who was graduated from Annapolis in 1908, is doing service in the Pacific waters. It is expected that the wedding will take place in the early spring.

Another engagement recently announced was that of Miss Aldana R. Quimby, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Quimby, to W. Lee White of Brewster, N. Y., son of Mr. and Mrs. William N. White of Stamford, Conn.

Miss Quimby was introduced to society a few seasons ago. No date has been set for the wedding.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Doris Christine Rude, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Rude of 688 Rugby road, Brooklyn, to Charles Clifford Bellows, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clifford Bellows.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Guinness and their children will not return to New York this winter. They left for England early in the spring, and it is their intention to remain there indefinitely. The Guinness house in Washington Square, North, has been leased for the winter. Consequently the charming dinners which Mrs. Guinness has been in the habit of giving will be greatly missed. The change in their plans has been due to the war and Mrs. Guinness with others of her countrywomen is hard at work for the wounded soldiers and their families.

Mr. and Mrs. Schuyler N. Warren, who went to Brittany, France, last June, after the marriage of their daughter, Miss Hope Warren, to Robert Wilberforce in London, are now in San Sebastian, Spain. They were obliged to leave France on account of the war and will remain in Spain for several months before returning to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Dows, who are now at Foxhollow Farm, Rhinebeck, N. Y., have taken for the winter the house of Mr. and Mrs. J. Woodward Haven, 18 East Seventy-ninth street.

Mrs. Gardiner Sherman, after living for several years in Rome, Italy, has decided to return to New York and she will be for the winter at 535 Park avenue.

The dance for the benefit of the Home for Convalescents, organized by Miss Ethel Polson, was a great success, netting $1,100. It was given a week ago last night at Shadowbrook, Lenox, the home of Spencer P. Shotter, the decorations of which had been superintended by his daughter, Miss Isabel Shotter. Nearly all the guests went in fancy dress and in advance of the dance dinners were given by Mrs. William E. S. Grinwald, Mrs. Carl A. De Gersdorff, Mrs. Charles Astor

Photo by Campbell Studios.
Miss Aldana Ripley Quimby.

Bristed, Mrs. H. Hollister Pease and Miss Mary Shotter.

The arrangements for the ball were in the hands of Miss M. Civilise Alexandre and associated with her were Mrs. Rose W. Whistler, Mrs. Joseph S. Whistler, Mrs. Frederick S. Delafield, Mrs. H. Hollister Pease, the Misses Shotter and Miss Gertrude Parsons. George Baty Blake, David T. Dana, Samuel Frothingham, Marshall R. Kernochan, H. Hollister Pease and George E. Turnure acted as a floor committee. Shadowbrook is one of the most imposing villas in Lenox and was built by the late Anson Phelps Stokes.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Crocker, who are now in East Williston, L. I., have leased for the winter the house of Corporation Counsel Frank Lyon Polk at 129 East Thirty-sixth street. Mr. and Mrs. Polk will be for the winter at 7 East Thirty-sixth street, the former home of Mr. Polk's father, Dr. William Mecklenburg Polk, who married Miss Maria De Hon last June. Dr. and Mrs. Polk will live at 310 Fifth avenue.

Debutantes are being added to the list constantly. One of them will be Miss Gertrude Nott Welling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brenton Welling of 60 East Fifty-third street. Another of the debutantes will be Miss Naomi Gilbert Townsend, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Bliss Townsend, for whom a dance will be given at the Ritz-Carlton on December 29, by her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Gilbert Harris.

Miss Adelaide M. Parker, daughter by a former marriage of Mrs. Gustaf Stromberg, will be introduced early in December, and Miss Helen James, a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Walter B. James, will be introduced to society at a dance which her parents will give at the Ritz-Carlton on December 28. Mrs. Frank A. B. Washburn will give a reception at her home, 52 East Seventy-ninth street, on the afternoon of December 1 for her sister, Miss Elizabeth Clarkson, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. L. Clarkson. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Astor Bristed, who are now in Lenox, will come to New York early in December. Their elder daughter, Miss Symphorosa Bristed, will be introduced to society at the dance to be held at Sherry's on December 28.

It has been decided to continue the Three Dances, a series of subscription dances organized by Mrs. Ira Barrows and others. They will be held at the Plaza on December 7, January 6 and February 8.

Willing Spencer, who was attached for some time to the American Embassy in Berlin, came to New York early in the week with Alfred G. Vanderbilt, whom he had been visiting at Oakland Farm, near Newport. Mr. Spencer sailed on Wednesday for South America, where he is to hold a diplomatic office in Caracas.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Oelrichs, who have been in England since their marriage last winter, returned here recently and are now at the Mueschinger-King, Newport. Mrs. Oelrichs was Miss Esther Moreland, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Moreland of Pittsburg.

Mrs. George W. Vanderbilt and her daughter, Miss Cornelia Stuyvesant Vanderbilt, are at Biltmore House, Asheville, N. C., where they will remain until the early part of January, going then to Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Oliver Iselin have returned from Europe and are at their country place in Glen Head, L. I.

GENERAL NOTES OF SOCIETY.

THE New York Mozart Society, Mrs. Noble McConnell, founder and president, will begin its season on Saturday, November 7, with a musicale at the Hotel Astor. Five other musicales will be held during the season and three evening concerts. The former will be on Saturday afternoons, December 5, January 2, February 6, March 6 and April 10, while the concerts will be on December 16, February 24 and April 21.

The club's season will wind up with the usual white and gold breakfast on the first Saturday in May. A number of informal affairs for the bachelor girls and ushers of the society will be given by the president. The musicales and concerts will be under the direction of Arthur Claassen, and at each one or more artists from the Metropolitan Opera House will take part in the programme.

The Beethoven Society will begin its season of entertaining on November 14 with an afternoon musicale at the Waldorf-Astoria. A meeting of the board of directors of the society was recently held at the home of its second vice-president, Mrs. Arlenden C. Bridges, 148 West Seventy-fourth street.

The society will give musicales once a month, and three evening concerts, one in December, February and April, and it will close its season with a blue and gold breakfast late in the spring. Mrs. Charles A. Braxmar is the president; Mrs. Simon Baruch, Mrs. Charles F. Otten, Mrs. John Lloyd Thomas, Mrs. A. C. Brown, Mrs. John H. Parker and Mrs. J. Christopher Marks, vice-presidents; Miss Ella Louise Henderson, secretary; Mrs. James D. Mortimer, treasurer, and Mrs. C. V. Washburne, auditor. The directors include Mrs. Julian Edwards, Mrs. Hamilton Higgins, Mrs. Charles F. Otten, Mrs. Harry Raphael, Mrs. J. E. Martin, Mrs. Wilmer O. Davis and Mrs. C. V. Washburne.

At the first meeting of the season of the Legislative League of New York at the Waldorf-Astoria on Thursday the subject for discussion was "The War Situation in Europe." Mrs. C. Thomas Slack, the president, related her experiences while abroad this summer, and George Sterling read some of his war poems.

The officers of the club, in addition to Mrs. Slack, are Mrs. J. Hedges Crowell, first vice-president; Dr. Sarah J. MacCarton, second vice-president; Mrs. Edward Austen Tuttle, third vice-president; Mrs. A. D. Grimshaw, fourth vice-president; Mrs. Janette L. Boynton, recording secretary; Mrs. Millard Barry Guilford, treasurer; Mrs. Rudolph J. Muller, auditor, and Mrs. Herbert F. Taylor, corresponding secretary. Mrs. Lilla Desvieux Blake is honorary president and the Rev. Antoinette B. Blackwell and Mrs. Charlotte B. Wilbour, honorary vice-presidents.

The Eclectic Club will begin its season on November 4 with a meeting and luncheon. Miss Florence Guernsey is president of the club.

The New York Theatre Club, of which Mrs. Belle de Rivera is president, will hold its first meeting of the season on Monday, November 2.

For the benefit of the Professional Woman's League's philanthropic fund, a card party will be held on October 19 at the league's rooms, 1999 Broadway. It will be in charge of Mrs. Helen Manning.

One of the first weddings of the week will be that of Miss Elinor Newman Tilden and Dr. Edward Martin Colle, Jr., which will be celebrated to-morrow evening in the West End Collegiate Church, West End avenue and Seventy-seventh street. The Rev. Dr. Cornelius Brett of Jersey City, an uncle of the bridegroom, will perform the ceremony, which will be followed by a small reception at the home of the bride's uncle, Paul Tilden, 147 West 163rd street.

Miss Tilden will have her sister, Mrs. Henry Hurd Rennell, for her matron of honor, and another sister, Miss Margaret Tilden; Miss Margaret Colle, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Agnes Ellingberg and Miss Marietta Coffin for bridesmaids. Dr. Colle, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Martin Colle of East Orange, N. J., will have Ruyon Cole for his best man. His ushers will be Frederick Colle, John Clark Tilden, Dr. Donald Jordan and James T. Kemp.

In the Edgehill Church at Spuyten Duyvil, on Saturday, Miss Constance McKelvey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Jay McKelvey, will become the bride of Lowell H. Brown, son of Mrs. Archer Brown of East Orange, N. J. Miss McKelvey, who made her debut two winters ago, will have her sister, Miss Ruth McKelvey, for her maid of honor, and another sister, Miss Mary McKelvey, Miss Constance Brown, Mrs. Geoffrey Kotts and Mrs. Reuben Hitchcock for her other attendants.

Archer Brown will wait upon his brother as best man, and serving as ushers will be Edwidge Wilson of Chicago, Trenholm Marshall, Arthur Menefee, H. Seaver Jones and Conlter Huyler.

The ceremony will be followed by a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McKelvey.

Mrs. Christina Halstead Shipman, daughter of Mrs. John J. Halstead of this city, will be married to H. C. Hocker, assistant to President Underwood of the Erie Railroad, on Wednesday in the apartments of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Irvin, 170 West Seventy-fourth street. The Rev. Frank J. Tilton, Jr., of the Second Collegiate Reformed Church, will officiate.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Rosenberger of 19 West Eighty-sixth street will give a reception this afternoon for their daughter, Miss Elvira Rosenberger, and Sidney O. E. Dryfoos, whose engagement was recently announced. Mr. Dryfoos is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto E. Dryfoos.

Mr. and Mrs. Rosenberger and their daughter recently returned from West End, N. J., where they spent the summer. The wedding will be celebrated on November 16 at Delmonico's.

The plans for the wedding of Miss will be her sister's maid of honor and only attendant, and William C. Morrill of White Plains will wait upon his brother as best man.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Jessie T. Sherman, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor Sherman, to J. Dominick Hackett, son of the late J. Byrne Hackett of Kilkenny, Ireland. Miss Sherman makes her home at 41 West Fifty-fifth street. She is a sister of Mrs. Alexander B. Pratt, Trowbridge and Mrs. George D. Pratt. The wedding will take place this fall.

Miss Elsa Arndt, daughter of Mr. and Pratt of East Orange, N. J., to Adolphus Newman Lockwood. The wedding will take place on Wednesday in the Grove Street Congregational Church, East Orange, and the ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Ferdinand Q. Blanchard. Miss Margaret Pratt will be her sister's only attendant and Douglas Leigh of Nutley, N. J., will be the best man.

Among the engagements made known last week were those of the Misses Lillian Clare and Madeleine Agnes McKinnon, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John W. McKinnon, which were announced at the same time. Miss Madeleine Agnes McKinnon non will become the bride of Kenneth Tachibana Marvin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Norton Marvin of 340 Riverside Drive, and her sister is engaged to Malby Lockwood Jelliffe of Jersey City.

Photo by Campbell Studios.
Miss Doris Christine Rude.

The Misses McKinnon reside with their parents at 237 Riverside Drive, just three doors from the Marvin house. They are graduates of the National Park School in Washington and have spent considerable time in study and travel abroad. Mr. Marvin is a brother of Daniel W. Marvin, who was lost on the Titanic.

The Rev. and Mrs. Maurice H. Harris of 254 West 103rd street have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Naomi Harris, to George M. Wolfson of this city. The Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Harris will give a reception for their daughter and her fiancé at their home next Sunday.

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur de Forest Wheeler of Stamford, Conn., of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Emily Dunbar Wheeler, to Arthur Hearn Cowl. Miss Wheeler is a sister of Mrs. Kenneth Fenton of Bermuda. Mr. Cowl is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarkson Cowl of Great Neck, L. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lehmann will give a reception on October 11 in honor of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry William Edelman, whose marriage took place in September. Mrs. Edelman was Miss Mabel Lehmann.

The Gamut Club's recent dance, which marked the opening of its roof garden, was such a success that the directors at their regular monthly meeting last Tuesday decided to have a permanent entertainment committee. Harriet Gale Griffith was chosen chairman of this committee, and her first effort will be a halloween party, to which men guests will be invited. The committee will arrange special entertainments each month. Virginia Millman entertained on Friday at the club in honor of Lucille Watson of the "Under Cover" company and Madge Kennedy of the "Twin Beds" company. Her guests included Mary Shaw, Beatrice Barron, Phoebe Bates and Saldee Williams Mitchell.

The Woman's Democratic Club, Mrs. John Sherman Crosby, founder and president, held its first business meeting of the season on Friday at the Hotel Astor. Mrs. Harry Campion made an address on "Sociology." Hostesses for the social meetings, which will be held on the last Friday in each month, are Mrs. J. S. Crosby, Mrs. Field, Mrs. J. E. Quinn, Mrs. Kiegan, Mrs. Francis H. Abraham, Mrs. J. Hedges Crowell and Mrs. James Moran. The next business meeting will be held on Friday.

The officers of the club are: President, Mrs. John Sherman Crosby; honorary president, Mrs. J. Hedges Crowell; vice-presidents, Mrs. James Moran, Mrs. George P. Nicholson, Mrs. J. E. Quinn and Mrs. William A. Sweetser; recording secretary, Mrs. Charles D. Hirst; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Frances H. Abraham; treasurer, Mrs. A. Emil Skoog; auditor, Mrs. Wainey Collins; historian, Mrs. Imogene King.

The chairman of standing committees are: Membership, Mrs. Richard A. Minet; ways and means, Mrs. L. Kiegan; reception, Mrs. Charles K. Mills; entertainment, Mrs. Allen Caruthers; press, Mrs. Franklin Donnell; legislative, Mrs. Marian Gold Lewis; politics, Mrs. William Porter Jenkins; printing, Mrs. J. E. Quinn; current events, Mrs. Harry Campion.

Photo Copyright by Campbell Photo Co.
Miss Greta Hostetter.

Ethel L. Graef, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Graef, and Ralph Van Syckle Morrill, son of Mrs. Charles Morrill of this city, have been engaged, owing to a recent death in the Graef family. It will take place on Wednesday, October 14, the date originally set, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Graef in Brooklyn, but will be very small, only members of the two families witnessing the ceremony. Miss Grace Harriet Graef

Mrs. Christian Arndt, will be married to Milton Sleuhre on November 14. The wedding will take place in the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Arndt at 410 Riverside Drive, of which they have just taken possession. They formerly resided at 330 West 103rd street.

Invitations have been received here for the marriage of Miss Ruth Standish Pratt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Webster

The Beauty Impulse

In woman leads her to follow the charming coiffure modes of today—a head-dress that is full and high at the crown, and set off, perhaps, with a dainty curl or cluster. But the luxuriant mass of hair rendered exceeds most women's natural growth.

The Triplet Switch

Simonson's latest provides the way to follow the latest modes with greatest ease. Really three switches, it is easily divided so you can wear one under a small, tight hat; two with one of the new larger hats; or all three with your full evening coiffure.

The Leading Modes of the Day

Will gladly be shown, and every convenience and courtesy extended. Superior accommodations for hairdressing, manicuring, hair coloring, shampooing. A physician specializes in hair and scalp treatments and the removal of superfluous hair.

To those who appreciate and can afford the best we will send our beautiful Catalogue of hair pieces on receipt of your visiting card and twelve two-cent stamps. Please do not ask for it if looking for ordinary, popular priced goods. We handle the first and finest quality only. To get the right book ask for "Modes in Hair."

Specialists in Hair Goods.

A. Simonson
506 Fifth Ave.,

Near 42 St.,
New York.